

3. Data overview

Clinical questionnaires

Figure 2 provides an overview of the number of questionnaires returned. 1,235 questionnaires were received from referring physicians and 1,596 from intensive care clinicians. More intensive care questionnaires were received because single intensive care questionnaires would have been received if the patient had been transferred from another unit, and this may indicate the higher proportion of these questionnaires compared with single referring physician questionnaires.

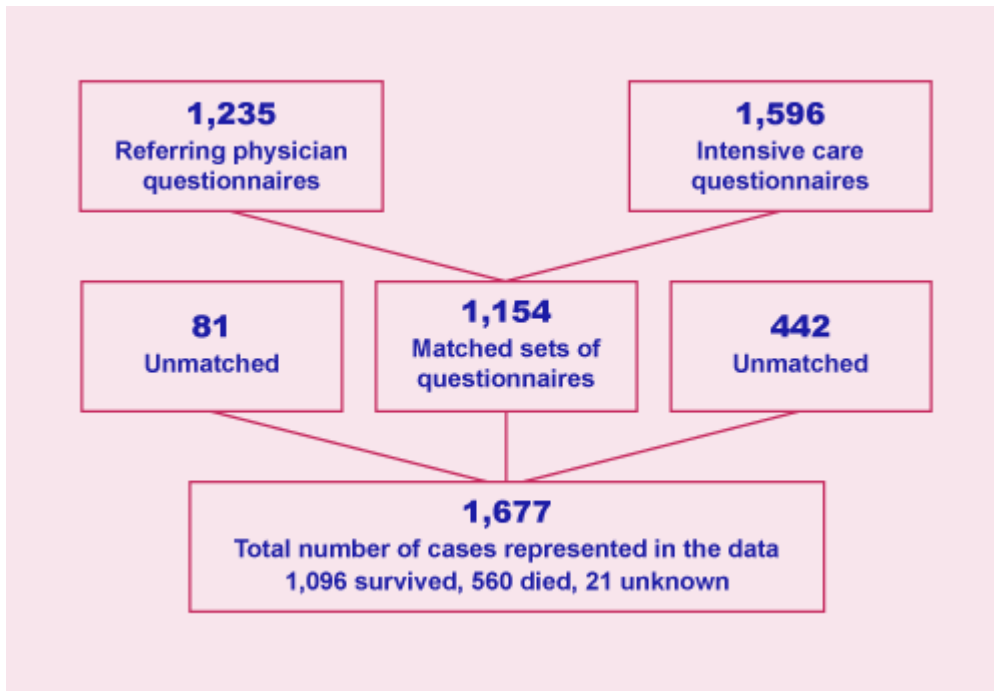

Figure 2. Overview of questionnaires returned