

DATA ANALYSIS

The data were aggregated and anonymised prior to analysis. The data obtained from the questionnaire assessment forms were analysed to determine areas of concern raised by the advisors. Where appropriate, these data were cross-referenced with the clinical information in order to clarify and expand findings. Where data presented are based on the opinions and finding from the advisory groups, this is clearly stated.