

11. Pathology

Body measurements

It is recommended that body height and weight be recorded for all autopsied patients⁴². In this study, 73% (32/44) had their height recorded and 64% (28/44) were weighed. Anecdotally we know that budgetary constraints often inhibit provision in public mortuaries of equipment such as body scales.