

2. Aim of study and method

Organisational questionnaire

An organisational questionnaire was disseminated to all mortuaries where coronial autopsies were performed in the participating countries. The organisational questionnaire was designed to gather information about the mortuary facilities available to pathologists when performing coronial autopsies. A copy is provided as an Appendix.